GOVERNMENT OF PUDUCHERRY
TRANSPORT SECRETARIAT

No. 266/Tr.Sectt./2011.

Puducherry, the 10th February 2011.

ORDER

The Ministry of Road Transport and Highways in the Government of India has decided to implement the project of providing Smart Card based Driving Licences and Registration Certificates.

2. In order to develop the Smart Card based technology usage in Motor Vehicle Department, the Government of India has entered into a MoU with National Informatics Centre, New Delhi. While using the Smart Card based technology it requires security measures and authentication of information stored in the Smart Card. For this purpose "Key Management System" is to be applied. This system is based on three tiers, which are as follows:-

- (i) Central Key Generation Authority (CKGA)
- (ii) State Key Management Authority (SKMA)
- (iii) Regional Key Management Authority (RKMA) (which includes Sub-Regional Key Management Authority).

3. "National Informatics Centre" in association with "Price Waterhouse Coopers" has developed a SKI Practice Statement (Key Management Procedures) which has been approved by the Ministry of Road Transport and Highways. Out of these above-mentioned tiers in the first phase, the first tier namely CKGA has been established at NIC-New Delhi. Now, SKMA is to be established in the State Motor Vehicle Department, and the third phase RKMA is to be established in the offices of Regional Transport Office and Sub RKMA in the Offices of Deputy Regional Transport Offices.

4. Accordingly, the Government of India vide its letter, dated 11-1-2005 has informed to establish SKMA and RKMA and appoint the Nodal Officers. In this background, the Transport Commissioner, Puducherry has proposed to appoint the Regional Transport Officer, Puducherry as the SKMA Nodal Officer, the Regional Transport Officer, Karaikal and the Motor Vehicle Inspector/Assistant Motor Vehicle Inspector in the Unit Offices, Mahe and Yanam as the RKMA. The Transport Commissioner has also requested to communicate the appointment of the Nodal Officers to the Nodal Officer, Central Key Generation Authority (CKGA), National Informatics Centre, "A" Block, CGO Complex, New Delhi -110 003.

5. Now, vide this order, sanction is accorded to establish "State Key Management Authority" and to appoint Regional Transport Officer, Transport Department, Puducherry, as the SKMA Nodal Officer. Sanction is also accorded to appoint a Senior Motor Vehicle Inspector as another SKMA Nodal Officer to help him and to look after the work of the first SKMA Nodal Officer in his absence. Similarly, the Regional Transport Officer, Karaikal and the Motor Vehicle Inspector/Assistant Motor Vehicle Inspector in the Unit Offices, Mahe and Yanam are nominated to work as the RKMA in their respective offices. The role and responsibilities of the SKMA have been shown in the Annexure.

(5) The concerned Officer working as SKMA and RKMA will be fully responsible to carry out their duties and will be liable for stringent action for their failure to obey the guidelines issued from time to time. The Transport Commissioner is authorised to communicate the names of the SKMA and RKMA Nodal Officers to the "Central Key Generation Authority (CKGA)".

ANNEXURE
